In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, the evidence submitted at the hearing, and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Keith Dewayne Jones is a 32 year old male born in Houston, Texas. He reported being unemployed, and has not worked for 13 years.
2. Jones presently resides with, and is financially supported by, his girlfriend and her mother. Jones has four children from a prior relationship and is not ordered to pay child support for those children. He owns no property and has no significant financial ties to the community.
3. Jones has family members in the Houston area, but reported that he has no contact with those family members. Jones has no significant family ties to the community.
4. Jones poses a flight risk in view of his lack of significant family or financial ties to this community.
5. Jones is charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm. Jones's criminal history includes six drug related felony convictions, a prior misdemeanor conviction for unlawfully carrying a weapon, three misdemeanor convictions for trespassing, a felony assault charge pled down to a misdemeanor offense, and one conviction for driving with a suspended license. A search of Jones's vehicle during a traffic stop revealed a loaded pistol and a loaded rifle, resulting in the present charge of felon in possession of a weapon.
6. Jones poses a danger to the community in view of his lengthy and continuing criminal history.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on August 9, 2006.
